BYNUM'S SPEECH OF DEFENCE

OPENED THE ARGUMENT FOR THE JUDGES MOST ABLY.

Holds that There Must Have Been a Criminal Intent Even if an Error of Judgment Was Made, and that the Prosecution Must Show This.

Raleigh Times.

Ex-Judge W. P. Bynum began his speech immediately after the Senate was called to order. He had been selected to make the opening speech in the defence of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court in a trial involving the honor and future usefulness of these two men; therefore in behalf of these respondents he asked respectful and careful hearing in a matter of such magnitude.

The manager for the prosecution had stated that a strong influence was at work for the interest of the accused, but that was certainly surprising when it is remembered where the indictment originated and the party to which these judges happen to belong has only a handful in either House of the General Assembly. The judges for their defence relied only and solely on the laws of the State and the Constitution to vindicate them from all these charges.

The Speaker quoted from the State Constitution showing the provision made for the court of impeachment. Of the six impeachable offences under the constitution of North Carolina these judges are charged under only one of them, namely: "Corruption or other misconduct in their official capacity." Indeed, they are not accused of all of this for no one has alleged that they have been corrupt so they are charged with "other misconduct in official capacity." Mr. Bynum then argued that the words "other misconduct" referred to the preceding word "corruption" and must be of that nature, hence for an act to be impeachable under this it must be an unlawful act coupled with a bad motive. It is imperative for the managers to prove that the respondents not only violated the constitution, but did so with a specific, wilful, criminal intent.

BAD MOTIVES MUST BE PROVEN.

The judges are presumed to be entirely innocent until proved otherwise. There is a story of a trial once before the Emperor Julian when the prosecuting attorney, seeing that he was defeated exclaimed, "O, Emperor, if to deny is sufficient what will become of the guilty?" to which the Emperor replied: "If to accuse is sufficient what will become of the innocent?" Mr. Bynum emphasized the point that the judges must be presumed to be innocent until proven to have wilfully violated the constitution. "There can be no crime without an evil mind," and the essence of an offence is the evil intent. This is the doctrine of law and religion. The calm judgment of mankind decrees that where the mind is pure he who differs from his neighbor does not offend. Without intent being indispensable to guilt the State would have a perpetual trial of impeachment; there are no judges who do not make mistakes in the law. The most illustrious jurists of the State have committed errors of judgment. The Honorable Manager (Judge Allen) when on the Superior Court bench made mistakes and was reversed by the Supreme Court but no one thought of impeaching him.

There are two issues in this case against the judges:

1. Have the respondents violated the constitution and laws of the State?
2. If so, was such violation with wilful intent?

Mr. Bynum then took up the charge that the respondents were in error in their decisions in the so-called office-holding cases, and tended to weaken the power of the General Assembly and bring it into disrepute. The defence said the reverse of this was true, and the managers would not be able to make good their assertion.

AN OFFICE IS PROPERTY.

1. What part of the statutes do the decisions of the court declare inoperative?

Mr. Bynum argued that the Supreme court had not interfered with such legislation or declared it unconstitutional except to protect the property rights of some citizens and even then the operation of the statute is only temporarily suspended.

2. What reason and authority had the court for holding these inoperative for the time being? For sixty years the courts of North Carolina have held that an office is property. He quoted from a long line of these decisions prior to the present court, and showed that the doctrine that an office is property had been long established when these respondents went on the bench. Unless courts were bound by authority no lawyer could advise correctly a client on legal points, and no man would know the law. This court sustained these acts except so far as they conflicted with the vested rights then operative.

3. Had the court the power thus to hold? This Mr. Bynum said they had, and quoted authority beginning with a decision of Chief Justice Marshall. There have been thirty-three judges so far on the Supreme Court bench of the State, and every one of them except two have either written opinions declaring some legislative act unconstitutional or have concurred in such opinion. The duty of passing on acts of the Legislature is not pleasant to a court, but it is an imperative duty. In 1871-'72 the Legislature attempted to get control of the charitable and penal institutions before the terms of office expired but failed. (Nicholas vs. McKee, Badger vs. Johnson.) Then in 1895 history was repeated and the same attempt made but in vain. (Lusk vs. Sawyer, and Wood vs. Bellamy.) Then again in 1899 the same attempt is made and the doctrine was again upheld. The fact that the managers have not included another judge who concurred in those decisions shows that they charge no wrong in those decisions themselves.

THE MANDAMUS LEGAL.

1. Were the writs in violation of any constitutional provisions of the State? Mr. Bynum read from the acts of 1897 creating the office of shell fish commissioner and prescribing most distinctly and unmistakably that the State Treasurer should keep the proceeds from the money paid in by the shell fish commissioner as a separate and distinct fund. An agreed suit came up before Judge Starbuck and chapters 18 and 19, Laws of 1899, were amendatory to the acts of 1897, and Judge Starbuck issued the mandamus. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme court. The Supreme Court decided differently from Judge Starbuck in only two particulars: First, the court decided that White's salary was only $400 per annum according to the act of 1899, and second that chapter 21, Acts of 1899, was amendatory of the acts of 1897.

WHITE A STATE OFFICER.

The only ways to collect a claim from the State is by application to the Auditor for a warrant, by suit in the Supreme Court in section 9, Article 4, and section 943 of The Code, an action in the Superior Court. White was a State officer, as much so as the Governor. Suppose the State Auditor and Treasurer should fail to pay any State officer his salary? The salaries of State officers cannot be claims against the State under the meaning of the constitution. If the Auditor does not issue such a warrant then it is the duty of the court, funds being available for this purpose, to issue a mandamus against the State Auditor and Treasurer compelling them to pay the salary, and not to simply recommend to the Legislature to pay a salary when they had already provided a fund for paying such salary. The failure to pay a State officer his salary does not give rise to a suit against the State, but an act on the part of the State compelling the Treasurer to do his duty, the funds being available. Any act of the Legislature denying to an officer his salary would be attempting to do indirectly what cannot be done directly, and Judge Ruffin says that such indirect method is a wicked infraction of the constitution of the State. White could not have sought relief under section 4, Article 9, of the constitution for that relates to a total different kind of claims. Judge Reid clearly states in a decision that thesection 4, article 9, was relative to the claims and debts then held against the State, and the Legislature sought to settle them by having the Supreme Court pass on the debt and the General Assembly to act upon the Supreme Court's recommendation. The salary of a State officer is not such a claim against the State.

Mr. Bynum then declared that the Legislature passed a simple resolution of inquiry after the case had been disposed of by the court, and that resolution never came to the official knowledge of the court.

NOT LIABLE FOR SIMPLE ERROR.

But even if the Senate decided that the court was wrong in its decisions in the office-holding cases, and in issuing the mandamus, the question of intent arises. It is not contended that the Senators cannot convict for any reason, but they will not be tyrannical and will decide the case on the law. A judge is not liable, civil or criminal, for an error of judgment, the United States Senate so declared in the impeachment trial of Judge Peck and all the authority so agree. In closing Judge Bynum invited a view of the official lives of the two judges; one of them the honored son of an illustrious father now on the meridian of life; the other the product of North Carolina, who is fast approaching the evening of life, and as was said of Judge Day, "the crumple when it fell upon his shoulders touched nothing less white than itself."

INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY.

Judge Bynum quoted this extract from sacred history:

Samuel said unto the children of Israel: "I am old and grayheaded; and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day. Behold, here I am. Witness against me before the Lord and before his anointed: Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I oppressed? for of whose hand have I received any bribe to blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you. And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's hand."

Judge Bynum declared that the illustrious judges of the State and nation had not been free from criticism in their day but they were great because they were free, and this case today is vital to every citizen because it involves the independence, and the future usefulness and power, of the judiciary of North Carolina.

Death of Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. Spencer Elliott died last night about one o'clock at her home on East Bragg street. She had been an invalid for more than a year and for some time her health had been so bad that it was evident the end was near.

The funeral will occur tomorrow morning at Pleasant Garden and the remains will be interred in the burying ground at that place.

Mrs. Elliott was in her eighty-second year, was a woman of deep piety, and for many years had been a consistent member of the Methodist church at Pleasant Garden station. She leaves six children to mourn her departure, two sons and four daughters, all of whom reside in Greensboro. They are Mr. W. R. Elliott, Mr. Dolph Elliott, Mrs. Sam Browne, Misses Nora, Ada, and Mittie Elliott.

Good Telegraphic Service.

The new trunk line of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, which is being constructed north of here has reached Lynchburg, Va. This line will in a few weeks reach Washington, D. C., giving Greensboro as good telegraphic facilities as are enjoyed by any city in the south.

To Extend Road.

The county commissioners met this afternoon in an adjourned session, and besides taking up the health matter, discussed road work. They decided to extend the road on which grading is now being done to the Alamance county line. The road runs southeast by Brick church, and is about fifteen miles in length. The grading will be carried to the Alamance line before any other work is begun.

District Attorney Holton was in the city yesterday afternoon with a case before Commissioner Wolfe. The case was against John H. Allen of Rockingham county, charging him with operating a still without having given bond. The defendant was placed under a $300 bail to appear for a further hearing next Friday.

PERTAINING TO OUR HEALTH

HEALTH COMMITTEE LOOKING OUT FOR PROPER CONDITIONS.

With Dr. Lewis the Creek is Examined Below the Water Works Station to the Carpet Mill—Cases of Smallpox.

Complaint having been made of bad conditions existing along the creek from the water works pond to the Carpet Mill, a distance of nearly three miles, Dr. Lewis of Raleigh, the Secretary of the North Carolina Board of Health, was invited by the county board to come and look into the situation. He came today, and in company with Dr. Beall and Dr. Harrison, went over the ground this morning. Dr. Lewis went back to Raleigh at noon. This afternoon Dr. Beall made an informal report to the county commissioners who were in session.

He stated that a written report of the condition of the territory examined would be presented to the board when convenient for them to receive it, and that it would be well to ask all the property owners along the way to be present and hear the report. The Board set the first Tuesday in April for the hearing, and ordered that the persons interested be asked to appear on that date.

The "County Health Committee", as organized under the new law, consists of the county commissioners, a physician appointed by the city, and one by the county, with the county physician as member ex-officio. The present "Health Committee" is Drs. Beall, Fox, and Harrison, and the Commissioners.

Dr. Harrison reported to the Commissioners that there were three cases of smallpox in the city. The form of the disease is very mild, and it exists on the east side among some negroes who came from Alamance county. In a family of eleven two have the disease. This is on East Market street, and the other on Clinton street. They have been quarantined and no danger whatever is apprehended. This city is too well vaccinated to fear the disease, which is prevalent more or less all over the State.

The Board ordered Dr. Harrison to look after the case.

Funeral of Mr. Walter Kase.

The funeral of Mr. Walter Kase was conducted this afternoon at half past three o'clock from the residence of his mother on Arlington street by Rev. Egbert Smith, and the remains were laid to rest in Greene Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Kase, although not a resident of Greensboro at the time of his death has many friends here who mourn his untimely end. He was a young man of fine character, and the family has the sympathy of the entire community. Col. Kase, the deceased's father, has been dead only about eight months, and this last affliction coming so soon upon that one is particularly sad.

Mrs. Kase, the wife of the deceased, reached the city last night. She was accompanied by Mrs. Voorhees, a relative.

The Sunday quiet in the neighborhood of the Hucomuga cotton mill was broken yesterday about noon by a cutting scrape. The participants were all negroes and the one who did the carrying, Henry Wiley, commonly known as "Horsehead", has the reputation of being a bad negro. He cut two negroes, one of them a section hand, and the other employed by the Brooks Manufacturing Company.

The affair took place outside the corporate limits, and the case was looked after by Deputy Sheriff Weatherly. "Horsehead" is also wanted for hitting a negro with a rock last Saturday.

Mr. O. S. Newlin returned last night from Burlington, where he went to attend the funeral of his grandfather, Mr. Oliver Newlin, an account of whose death appeared in The Telegram last week.

SOME DESULTORY REMARKS OF TODAY

A Dog Which at First Appeared Playful But Might Not have Been. Great Turkey Hunter.

"Of course the Judges will be convicted," said a well known Republican in transit this morning. "That's what the trial is for. It's according to human nature, which has ever been the same. Do you recollect the occasion when the apostles came near falling out and having a general row? Why it was when John and James got to disputing over who should have the biggest place in the Kingdom."

There is a little dog belonging to Mr. Alec. Alford of this city, which is fond of showing his affection for children in a very demonstrative way. When they begin playing with them he goes straight for their heads, not for the purpose of hurting them, but to pull off their hats. No doubt the boys have taught him to do this by shaking and throwing their hats at him. Yesterday afternoon he "went" for the hat of Mr. J. C. Pierce's little boy. The little fellow is quite small and doubtless thought the dog was trying to bite him, and a scuffle ensued. The little boy's face was badly scratched, necessitating the attention of a physician, yet the little dog was only playing with him. Later in the afternoon he tore the dress of a little girl and hurt her. Fearing that something more than mere playfulness was the trouble with the dog, he was tied up. This view was carried out by the behavior of the dog in snapping Mr. Eckle while the latter was tying him up.

Yesterday afternoon the Mayor had before him a full Sunday's haul of crap shooters. They were a deeply persecuted lot. Each one of them was able to prove by half dozen witnesses that he was somewhere else when the police swooped down upon the crowd of twenty-five. Professor Wagstaff had piloted the officers to the crowd and he was the star witness, but his testimony passed for naught. Upon the Mayor's inquiry if he would tell the truth in its rotundity and completeness, the Professor affirmed that he knew how to tell nothing else. When commanded by His Honor to dish out some of it, Peter threw a long and solemn look at the row of ivory and moons arrayed on the hither side of the court room, and for some time refused to speak. When he did it was only to announce that there was about twenty niggers wanting to make the batch complete. He didn't know the names of those who had been shooting, but he pointed them out, one by one. One of the boys, as black as gunpowder, put in the remark that "Uncle Pete orter be ashamed of himself to tell such a story." This infuriated the witness and he yelled out "shet up you little black rascal, don't you spute my word. You denies bein' dere an' you knows you was dere and yo' trifflin black brudder, too."

Revenue Officer J. A. Logan went out to Liberty Store, in this county yesterday, and while there paid a visit to the celebrated hunter of that section, Mr. J. J. Busick. Mr. Busick showed him a snake skin eight feet long, testifying to his prowess as a snakeslayer. But this was not a circumstance to what he showed Mr. Logan as trophies of his turkey hunts. Taking him into his smokehouse, he pointed out long rows of turkey feet, which came off the birds he had killed in the last four or five years. There were between three and four hundred of them, and only one from a bird.

LARGEST HEAD IN WORLD. Five-Year-Old Boy in North Carolina Has It.

Atlanta News.
Rutherfordton, N. C., March 11.—The first photos and facts about George Randall were gotten this week by your correspondent after many efforts. The parents of the boy are peculiar and sensitive, and have always objected, until now, when they gave the facts about him and allowed a photograph taken of him. He is one of the most wonderful freaks of nature in the south and perhaps in the world. He carries on his shoulders one of the largest and heaviest heads of any person known. He lives at Ellenboro, Rutherford county, North Carolina, is five years old and weighs 65 pounds. His body, arms and legs weigh only fifteen pounds. For four years his head has grown rapidly and it cannot be seen that his body has grown a particle since that date. He is skin and bones. He eats nothing but meat and bread and occasionally drinks a cup of coffee.

While he is in perfect health, and has been so with the exception of one illness two years ago, the parents and family physician do not believe that he will live long. At times he cannot hold up his head, but most of the time he prefers lying in bed, only because his head is so heavy. The boy has a fair education considering his age. He reads newspapers all the while and is more fond of them than books. He cannot write, neither can he read writing. He says he has no desire to do so. He is very quick to catch to anything. He is also very sensitive, telling the correspondents that he did not want his picture published.

Mr. W. W. Downing, who is a theatrical manager of New York, spending the winter here, offered the parents $75 per week for the boy for three months, but before the parents could answer the boy replied that he would not leave home for any price. He can be seen any time near Ellenboro, and these facts are well known to the people living in that part of the county.

The UNIVERSAL VEGETABLE SLICER is unequalled for slicing all vegetables. The knives of this machine are of the finest quality of cutlery steel, carefully hardened and tempered and ground to a keen edge and the arrangement of the hinged lid makes it impossible to cut the fingers. R. F. BEASLEY, Editor and Manager

TUESDAY, MARCH 19.

On Saturday the news columns of The Telegram told the fact that Count Boni de Castellane wounded his antagonist, M. de Rodays, the editor of Figaro, with whom he was fighting a duel, with the first fire. Boni must be one of the fiercest of Frenchmen. He just walked right into the house of the editor and slapped his face. We should like to have the Count visit this country and get insulted at the remarks of a paper, and go for the editor. It is the one thing needful to teach the young cad some sense. It is probable that the editor would take the young man down and spank him and if a challenge followed, the Count would probably be told to go home to his ma.

In a primary election for mayor and aldermen in Wilmington yesterday, A. M. Waddell received, for mayor, 859 votes, and W. E. Springer 857. A second primary will be necessary for a nomination. A primary of this kind, in which all the members of a party vote as they please, first hand, without delegates or after conventions, is in our humble judgment, better than legal primaries, conventions, or anything else, for the nomination of candidates.

We surrender much of our space today to the speech of Ex-Judge W. P. Bynum of this city, in the impeachment trial. This is the opening speech, and no doubt fully presents the argument of the defense, though the after speeches will of course continue to elaborate on it. We shall try, too, to give a speech fully presenting the other side of the question, when it has been made. Of course Judge Bynum's speech is not given in its entirety, that would more than fill all our paper.

The Durham Sun says:

No community can prosper as it ought if its people are divided upon every enterprise of importance that is started. Every one should bear in mind that the success of a legitimate enterprise in a community benefits nearly every one in it.

A truth which some people need to take to heart.

On the 23rd Uncle Adlai Stevenson will publish in the Philadelphia Record an article entitled "Drifting from the Landmarks." Our recollection is that Uncle Adlai himself gave considerable encouragement to the pilots when they cut the first cable.

Returns From Morganton. □ Salisbury Sun.

Dr. George T. Winston, president of the A. & M. College at Raleigh, was in the city this morning on his way to Raleigh. He was accompanied by Mrs. Winston, who has been at the Morganton hospital for treatment for the past year and who has been discharged as cured. Mrs. Winston is one of the most intellectual women in the south and her many friends in the State will be gratified to learn of her recovery.

Success to Mr. Van Noppen. Wilmington Messenger.

Mr. Charles Van Noppen, a worthy alumnus of the University of North Carolina, has been secured by the trustees to make a canvass in behalf of that most important State institution. The aim is two fold, as we learn from the Greensboro Telegram: to raise a $100,000 endowment and to also raise additional thousands to complete the Alumni building in course of erection. Success to Mr. Van Noppen. If the friends of the University with money are not smitten with a paralysis of not giving he must have an easy job before him. The friends aforesaid should raise a quarter of a million in this new year of a new century and put the University on such a strong basis that it shall go rapidly forward in the great work of a genuine University.

KILL THEIR CHILDREN FOR INSURANCE

Memphis, Tenn., Dispatch.

The question of prohibiting child life insurance in Tennessee has been before the general assembly several times, but the bills have been killed off. The necessity of passing a law of the character has been impressed upon the members of the present legislature from every one of the large counties in the State, and it is now almost certain that a prohibitory law will be enacted. A bill, presented by Representative Edington, of Shelby county, has passed the lower house and it is said will have easy sailing when it goes before the senate for final consideration. There is no doubt but what child life insurance in Tennessee is an incentive for crime, especially among the lower and more degraded class of persons—mostly negroes. One of the leading colored lawyer of Shelby county said today:

"There are hundreds of negroes in the state who would put their children to death to secure money with which to purchase cocaine or other drugs."

While this is said to be true of one class of degraded persons, there are others who would allow their children to die of neglect and then reap the harvest—the collection of from sixty to a couple of hundred dollars.

Court officials and the county officers have had a number of these cases to cope with during the past few years. Three years ago the child life insurance evil became notorious, and a number of arrests were made in different cities, where children met sudden death under suspicious circumstances. Upon investigation it was almost invariably learned that the life of the child had been insured, and that the parents were preparing to collect the money. Numerous cases came to the attention of the officers where children were smothered to death during the night at least. This was the story given out by the parents, but close investigation often revealed another state of affairs. Quite a number of these cases have been before the courts of Shelby county. Not long since Thomas Crenshaw, a negro, and his wife were arrested in this county for the murder of their infant child upon whose life they carried a small policy. They said the child died of pneumonia, but the evidence went to show that the infant had met an untimely death as the result of neglect and beating. The evidence was all against the man, and he went to the penitentiary for five years. He is now doing time at Nashville. This is but one case out of many.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to offer many thanks to our numerous friends and neighbors who came to us in the hour of distress and just when assistance rendered was so timely and highly appreciated. We felt so gloomy and could not see our way clearly, having lost so much from that awful fire it is impossible for us to express our feelings of gratitude and love which so much kindness has inspired. May God bless each and every one that lent us their substantial aid and sympathy and love. We know there is love and peace and good will toward men existing in the human family. We realize that we have friends who love us and are interested in our welfare.

This has been an object lesson to us which will teach us love. With kindest and best feelings we are,

It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by C. E. Holton.

FOR OLD AGE

To the old, as to babies, the even balance of health is more important than anything else in the world. The possible health, in age, is not high and strong; it is only even.

There is no end, but death, to the trouble that comes of its loss.

It ought to be watched like a baby's.

Their future is short; but oh how it turns on comfort! on whether the wrinkles are wrinkles of pain or of long serene enjoyment!

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil—for very old and very young in different ways—is the food to secure this even condition of health.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Walt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by A. E. Holton's drug store.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough. Howard Gardner.

Facilities Soon

To Be Installed :

Owing to the rapid growth of the "City of Flowers" I find it necessary to increase capacity for coming summer work. Will shortly add a new 50 horse power engine and 60 horse boiler, washing machine and mangle. These new machines added to present equipment will put the "Gate City" on an equal with any laundry in the south. Would call special attention to the new collar and cuff machine recently purchased which will give either gloss or domestic finish, by simply changing gear from left to right and vice versa. We give gloss finish unless otherwise notified. Give us a trial and be convinced that we can't be beat. Mail white wagons or 'phone 176.

REMARKABLE CURES OF RHEUMATISM.

Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by A. E. Holton's drug store.

A POWDER MILL EXPLOSION

Removes everything in sight; so do drastic mineral pills, but both are mighty dangerous. Don't dynamite the delicate machinery of your body with calomel, croton oil or aloes pills, when Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are gentle as a summer breeze, do the work perfectly. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25c. at C. E. Holton's drug store.

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; old running and fever sores, urcers, boils, felons, corns, warts, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains. Best pile cure on earth. Drives out pains and aches. Only 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by C. E. Holton.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

AN ANCIENT BELIEF.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of static or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the affliction is demonic enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by C. E. Holton.

ow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning," thought that she must soon die from had cured her of consumption. After three doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c.

Dies Far Away From Home

Mr. Earl C. Linden, of Denton, Maryland, died at the Hotel Huffines, this city, today about eleven o'clock of consumption. He came here last Friday night and stopped over to rest himself, being fatigued with travelling, and intended to continue the next morning to Hendersonville. The next morning however, he was unable to travel, and grew steadily worse until this morning when death came. His father, Mr. E. W. Linden, was telegraphed for and arrived here this morning on an early train only a few hours before the death of his son.

Remains will be taken tonight to Denton for interment.

Ball!

The Telegram is asked to invite all ball lovers to go to the Mendenhall field, corner of Washington and South Ashe, tomorrow afternoon. This is the field, as has been mentioned, where the playing will occur this season and all interested in the game are wanted there at four o'clock.

A Midday Fire.

An alarm of fire was turned in today during the noon hour for a fire located in a leaf tobacco house on Belle Meade avenue. The roof of the building caught from a flue, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The building is the property of Mr. W. E. Stone and was used to store tobacco in.

For several years it has been the custom to test the fire alarm at noon on Tuesdays, and this alarm coming near twelve o'clock, caused many people to think that it was simply a test and not a real fire.

The bankruptcy case of Grimes Bros., of Winston, set for today, came up before Judge Boyd this morning, but was continued until Friday.

A Pretty Opening.

The millinery opening of S. L. Gilmer & Co. occurred Saturday and Monday, and the store was, on each day, filled with an eager and appreciative throng of both ladies and gentlemen. The store was tastefully decorated with lace curtains and attractive goods of various kinds, and everything displayed to the best advantage. The footfalls of the visitors were muffled by heavy carpeting down the aisles.

On Saturday the store was visited by many of the Norman girls. Yesterday the students of the Greensboro Female College visited it. A special feature of the opening was a handsome display of upholstering goods.

Much of the credit of the success of the occasion belongs to the untiring efforts of the manager, Miss Nina Brown, and she is to be complimented upon the tasteful way in which she has decorated the store.

Author Club Entertained.

The Author Club, the membership of which comprises twelve of the young girls, two and three year hence debutants, is one of the few pleasure clubs that has not discontinued its meetings during Lent. Last week the club was very delightfully entertained by one of its gentleman friends, Mr. Roland Hill, at his home on East Washington street. Miss Lillina Adams received the first prize, acut glass salve jar, and Miss Orie Lee, the booty.
